

The truth behind bl00dyveil

So i'm not gonna sugarcoat it bl00dy exposed mine and his dm's to an egirl and tried to dox me not once but twice, found my email and then tried to find my address, all proof of what he did is provided in this document, all proof of what the e-girl did / the harm she imposed is in her document.

I'm not normally one to hate about pfp's i've had my fair horrible pick of pfps myself but this is downright disgusting e-player behaviour and people like this are the reason abortion should exist.

Picking sides

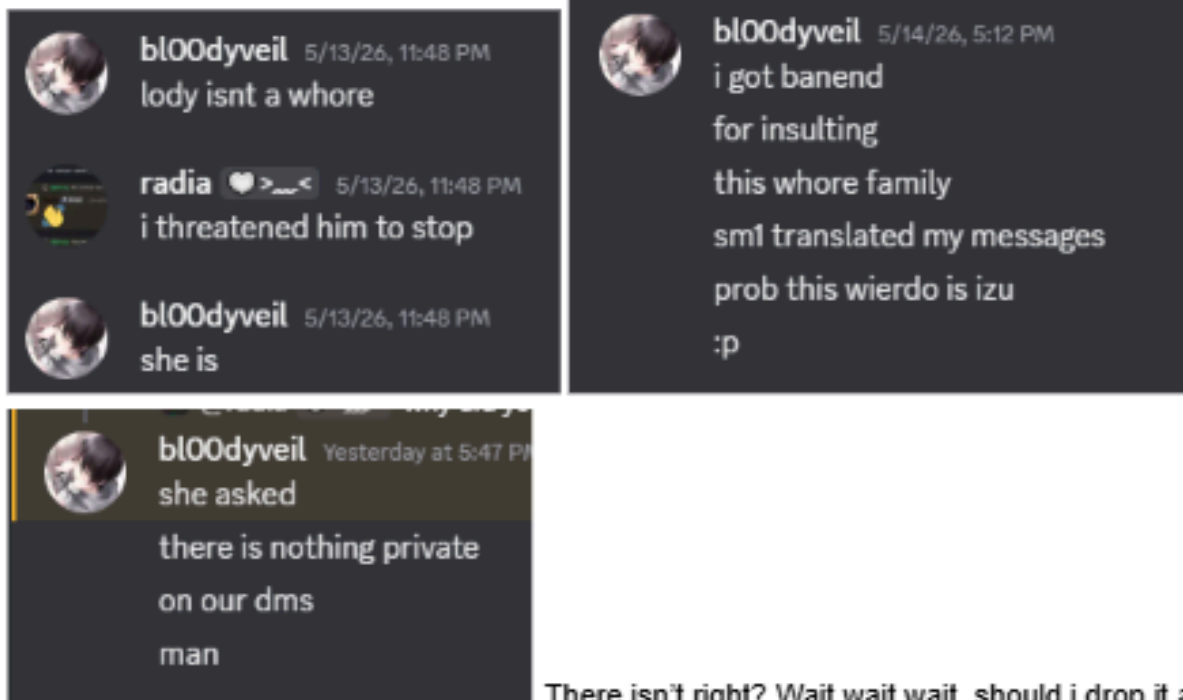

Okay, as per usual "friends" gotta pick sides, introducing bl00dyveil aka bl00dy. He is a pretty comical copy of izu / a "cheap" fake of izu. He started messaging lody absolutely every screenshot of our dm's leaking them so how's this for a change?

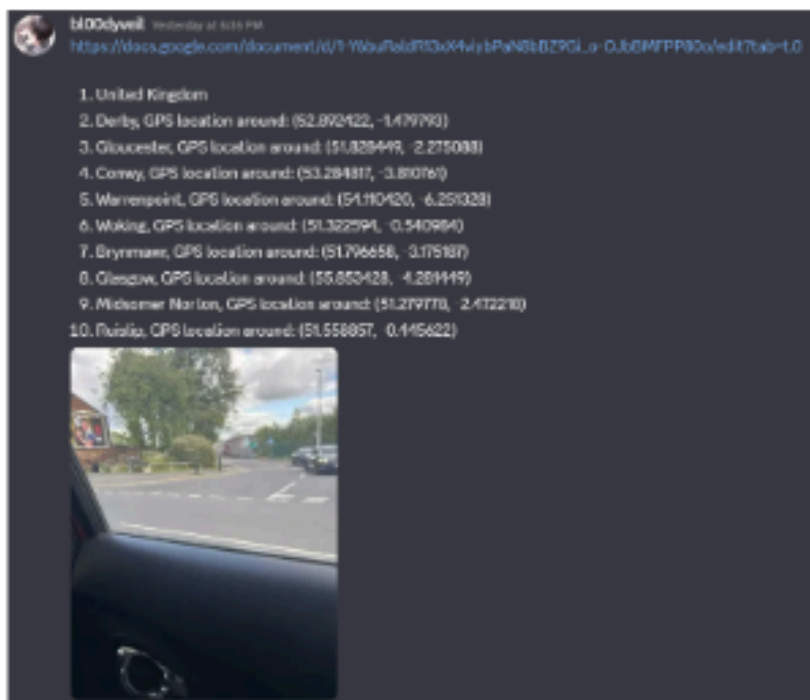

OH YES THERE IS.

Let's take some messages from OUR dm shall we?

There isn't right? Wait wait wait, should i drop it all?

^ Trying to "osint" my address. I'm not even near any of those i haven't even heard of any of those countries, this photo i sent kholoud so yes she has a very cropped, no license plate no street name image.

- context not much needed other than trying to find my location from a photo i shared with lody.
- +++ he called lody a whore as you can see above ^
